We are looking for people with excellent teaching skills. As a team we work hard and we see very good results for the work we do both inside and outside the classroom.

Aidanfield Christian School is:

- invested in a journey as authentic Treaty partners and as such a strong commitment to growing in both knowledge and application of things Māori in a Christian school environment is required.
- an Apple based school for IT – Android fans manage to transition!
- a great place to work with strong and supportive teams of professionals, a genuine commitment to being authentic and real in our faith and a focus on doing the best we can for each pupil.

Our pupils are great people to spend the day with! We have a current roll cap of 425 pupils from year 1 to year 10 with an aim to grow to 550 over the coming 5 years. We have new buildings for all our students and staff. We continue to grow with significant pressure on our roll. Our Christian faith is central to what we do while we stay focused on our main tasks as a multi denominational state integrated school. We have a significant multicultural mix of pupils from around the world as domestic pupils and we have a growing and well supported international programme that enhances the already diverse cultural mix within our school community.

Our website (www.aidanfield.school.nz) has a lot of information that may be useful in helping you understand us more.

The positions as advertised, require a willingness and ability to take part in religious instruction appropriate to the "Special Character" of the School and shall be a condition of appointment, as provided in the School's Integration Agreement and section 47 of Schedule 6 of the Education and Training Act 2020 and all relevant amendments subsequent. All teaching staff are expected to support this through their personal and private lives as people of integrity and faith. Should you be the successful applicant this will be a condition of appointment and incorporated as part of your "Terms and Conditions of Employment". A willingness and ability to sign the Board of Proprietors Statement of Faith each year is a condition of ongoing employment at the school. One of your duties would be to support and uphold the School's "Special Character".
